

News release

Grant Thornton International appoints new chairman of Board of Governors

13 January 2010

Peter Bodin, CEO of Grant Thornton Sweden, has been elected as chairman of the board of governors of Grant Thornton International, the highest decision making body within the global accounting organisation. He succeeds Ed Nusbaum who has been appointed as CEO of Grant Thornton International. Peter will serve a two year fixed term from 1 January 2010. Grant Thornton International is one of the world's leading global accounting organisations, with more than 30,000 partners and staff in over 100 countries.

The board of governors is comprised of the chairman, the CEO and 18 additional members, the majority of whom are active senior partners from Grant Thornton member firms around the world. The board appoints the CEO of Grant Thornton International, sets priorities and budget and approves any recommended changes to the organisation's constitutional arrangements based on the recommendation of the CEO.

Peter has been CEO of Grant Thornton in Sweden since 2000, when he was the youngest CEO of any of the large accounting firms in Sweden. Peter is passionate about leadership and business development and is a frequent speaker in the Swedish business community and at many universities.

- ends -

For further information please contact:

Christine Hobart

International communications manager

T +44 (0) 20 7391 9548

M +44 (0) 79 0005 2240

E christine.hobart@gtuk.com

Any and all references to Grant Thornton International are to Grant Thornton International Ltd. Grant Thornton International is one of the world's leading organisations of independently owned and managed accounting and consulting firms. These firms provide assurance, tax and specialist business advice to privately held businesses and public interest entities. Services are delivered independently by the member and correspondent firms within Grant Thornton International, a non-practicing, international umbrella entity organised as a private company limited by guarantee incorporated in England and Wales. Grant Thornton International does not deliver services in its own name or otherwise. Grant Thornton International and the member firms are not a worldwide partnership.